General Provisions

1. The Terms and Conditions specify the rules for participating in and conducting the Promotion, the prizes provided in the Promotion, the rules for their collection, and the complaint procedure.
2. Each person participating in the Promotion is obliged to read the Terms and Conditions, and its provisions become binding on the Participant at the time the Participant submits a claim to the Promotion.
3. A Promotion Participant may be a natural person who is a consumer, i.e., purchasing a Promotional Product for purposes unrelated to business or professional activity, who is at least 18 years of age and has full legal capacity. Any purchase made for a company will be treated as non-consumer.
4. The Participant must also meet the following criteria:

- must not be an employee of the Organizer;
- must not be a family member (i.e., ascendant, descendant, collateral relative, or spouse) of an employee of the Organizer;

5. The Organizer reserves the right to terminate the Promotion earlier in the event the prize limit is exhausted,
6. The purchase of one Promotional Product entitles the buyer to participate in one promotion or contest organized by the Organizer or the parent company of the Organizer's capital group, i.e., Micro-Star International CO. Ltd. (address: No. 69, Lide Street, Zhonghe District, 235 New Taipei City, Taiwan, VAT number: 22178368). The Organizer is entitled to reject claims made in violation of this provision.

Conditions of Participation in the Promotion:

1. Participation in the Promotion is voluntary.
2. One product/model can only participate in one promotion, meaning that promotions for a given model do not combine. This means that a participant cannot take part in several promotions for a given product of the Organizer simultaneously.
3. To participate in the Promotion, the following steps must be taken:

- during the Promotion Period, purchase one of the Promotional Products from a Promotional Retail Partner and retain the proof of purchase in the form of an invoice or receipt (one invoice or one receipt entitles the Participant to submit one claim to participate in the Promotion, i.e., to receive a maximum of one prize, regardless of the number of the Organizer's products the Participant has purchased. A pro-forma invoice does not constitute proof of purchase of goods),
- submit a claim to participate in the Promotion through the Organizer's Website (eeu.msi.com or https://eeu.msi.com/Promotion/winter-evenings-with-msi-2026) before the expiry of the claim acceptance period, by correctly filling out the form and sending a scan of the invoice or receipt for the purchased Promotional Product. Filling out the claim form requires providing the model of the Promotional Product and the Participant's personal data in the form of name and surname, e-mail address, contact telephone number, address, postal code, and city; and in the case of promotions on pl.msi.com, creating an account through the Organizer's Website,

- consent to the processing of the Participant's personal data for marketing purposes by the Organizer and entities belonging to its capital group.

4. The prize will be awarded to a Participant who meets the conditions of participation in the Promotion and submits a correct claim before the expiry of the Promotion period or before the prize pool is exhausted. Prize activation takes place via the Games Planet platform, which is not affiliated with the Organizer. To activate the prize, follow the instructions on the prize redemption page: https://uk.gamesplanet.com/promo/MSIWINTER2026
5. The receipt of a prize is determined by the order of claims, and prizes are issued until their limit is exhausted. In the event the prize limit is exhausted, despite the confirmation of a valid claim for participation in the Promotion, the Participant's right to receive the prize expires.

Organizer's Procedure upon Receipt of Claim:

1. Claims are accepted up to 14 days after the end of the promotion, i.e., until January 5, 2027, at 23:55. The Promotion may end earlier if the designated pool of prizes or products described in the table in section 9 is exhausted.
2. The Organizer assesses the completeness of the claim and verifies the truthfulness of the provided data within up to 30 business days from the date of its submission by the Participant.
3. After the Participant submits a claim to participate in the Promotion, they will receive confirmation of the claim's acceptance by e-mail from the Organizer within 30 days. Failure by the Participant to receive the notification within the aforementioned period means that it may not have been successfully registered, in which case the Participant should contact the Organizer by e-mail at promocje@msi.com.
4. The Organizer informs the Participant about the rejection of the claim and the reasons for its rejection within 30 days of receiving the claim electronically to the e-mail address indicated by the Participant in the Promotion participation claim.
5. In the event a prize is awarded, the Organizer will inform the Participant of this fact by e-mail and send the prize to the Participant before the expiry of the Claim Processing Time, or alternatively, will inform the Participant that the limit of prizes applicable to the claim has been exhausted.
6. If the Participant provides an incorrect address that prevents the delivery of the prize, or if the Participant uses a forged or altered proof of purchase, the Organizer rejects the claim, and the Participant's right to the prize expires.

Prizes and Collection:

1. Prizes for participating in the Promotion are described in the Definitions of these Terms and Conditions (§ 1 sec. 9 of the Terms and Conditions).
2. The Organizer allows for the possibility of increasing the number of prizes during the Promotion.
3. The Organizer allows for the possibility of receiving several promotional prizes, even if purchases were made on a single receipt/invoice, provided that the claims concern different promotions, meaning that one claim can be submitted per promotion and the prize pool has not been exceeded.

4. The prize will be sent to the Participant before the expiry of the Claim Processing Time.
5. Prizes are delivered by the Organizer to the e-mail address indicated by the Participant in the claim for participation in the Promotion.
6. Upon receiving the prize by e-mail, the Participant should check whether the code works properly and whether its content is consistent with the awarded value. If the Participant discovers any irregularities, they should contact the Organizer to obtain a correct code.
7. If the Participant fails to collect the prize sent to the address provided in the claim and it is returned to the Organizer, the right to this prize expires, unless the Participant proves that the failure to collect was due to reasons attributable to the Organizer.
8. The Participant has no right to demand payment of any cash equivalent instead of the prize. Subject to the provisions of § 6 of the Terms and Conditions and cases specified in generally applicable law, the Participant has no right to demand that the Organizer exchange the received prize for another item.
9. The prize in the promotion is a marketing product and is not subject to warranty.
10. Pursuant to the provisions of the Personal Income Tax Act, Promotion Participants are subject to tax liability on general principles and are obliged to settle the prize on their own with the competent Tax Office.
11. Lump-sum income tax is not deducted from the prize if its one-time gross value does not exceed PLN 2,000. This exemption does not apply to a taxpayer who received the prize in connection with their business activity.

Complaint Procedure:

1. The Organizer is obliged to provide defect-free prizes.
2. If the provided prize has a defect, the Organizer bears liability under the conditions described in the Terms and Conditions and applicable legal provisions.
3. Complaints should be submitted by e-mail to: promocje@msi.com.
4. The complaint claim must specifically state the name of the Promotion, the reason for the complaint, provide the name and surname and e-mail address, and specify what the Participant is demanding.
5. The Organizer shall review the complaint within 14 days and respond to it by e-mail. The Organizer shall immediately notify about any deficiencies in the complaint claim. Such notification will be accompanied by information on how to supplement the deficiencies in the complaint claim.

Personal Data Protection:

1. Personal data of Promotion Participants will be processed in accordance with the provisions of the Act of May 10, 2018, on the protection of personal data and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27, 2016, on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (the so-called GDPR), for the purpose of conducting the Promotion, including the delivery and execution of prizes.

In this case, personal data will be transferred to a third country based on safeguards in the form of standard data protection clauses adopted by the Commission, pursuant to Art. 46 sec. 2 lit. c) GDPR. Apart from these cases, the Organizer does not share personal data with any other entities unless such a necessity arises from generally applicable legal provisions.
4. Personal data provided in the claim form are treated as confidential and are not visible to unauthorized persons.
5. Providing personal data by the Participant is voluntary, although necessary to participate in the Promotion.
6. Personal data on behalf of the Organizer are processed solely by authorized persons.
7. Participants have the right to access their personal data and rectify, delete, or restrict their processing, as well as the right to object, request the cessation of processing and data portability, the right to withdraw consent to data processing at any time, and the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority – the President of the Personal Data Protection Office. The exercise of these rights towards the Organizer will also be effective towards entities belonging to its capital group to which data were transferred based on the Participant's consent. The Organizer undertakes to promptly forward information on the exercise of the above rights by the Participant to the relevant entities from its capital group, if their data have been transferred to these entities.
8. After the end of the Promotion, but no later than within 90 days of its completion, all data of Participants who took part in the Promotion will be anonymized, except where anonymization is impossible due to an ongoing complaint procedure or the pursuit of claims by the Participant or Organizer. If consent to data processing for marketing purposes is granted, personal data will be stored until such consent is withdrawn.
9. A promotion participant may delete their data from the Organizer's database at any time using the link https://account.msi.com/members/accountDelete
